AGENDA

📍 6th March 2020 🕒 11:45 am to 1:00 pm

'Urban Sanitation: Role of Elected Representatives'
5th South Asian Cities Summit, Goa
📍 Cidade de Goa, Goa, India

Welcome Address
Hitesh Vaidya, Director, NIUA

Non-Sewered Sanitation for Indian cities

Relevance of Non-Sewered Sanitation for Indian cities - India FSSM journey
Prof Meera Mehta, CEPT

State Scale-up Strategy on Faecal Sludge and Septage Management (FSSM)
Sangramjit Nayak, DMA, HUDD, Odisha

Role of Elected Representatives in Ensuring City Wide Inclusive Sanitation

Video Presentation

Presentations by Elected Representatives from five cities on approach adopted by them in planning and implementation of non-sewered sanitation solutions
- Need for non-sewered sanitation
- Strategy adopted and challenges
- Impacts and benefits of the initiative

Panel Discussion: Aspects of implementing and scaling up of non-sewered sanitation
Session Chair: Prof. Srinivas Chary, ASCI
- Need for Faecal Sludge and Septage Management (FSSM): Low-cost, high impact
- Reaching the poor & vulnerable & gender mainstreaming
- Devolution of power from state to ULB
- User charges and citizen engagement on FSSM
- Capacity building of elected representatives
- Working with SHGs and women sanitation workers

Call for Action - ‘Mayors' Declaration’

For information contact:
Mr. Mohit Kapoor (Sr. Programme Officer)
Email: mkapoor@niua.org  Mobile: +91 9879867747
Website: scbp.niua.org